

MICROENERGY CONSULT

Africa

Burkina Faso

Project Description:

Assess the market for solar lighting products in Burkina Faso and to determine which supply chain(s) can be used either as a model or as an intermediary distributor by the Lighting Africa programme, in order to significantly enhance the distribution of Lighting Africa-approved solar lamps within the country.

Mapping the Supply Chain for Solar Lighting Products

Services

Technical Assistance

Topics

Clean Energy Technologies

Date

May – July 2013

Partners

CB Energie

Clients

World Bank Group

Beneficiaries

Lighting Africa Programme

Services Provided:

- Overall lead of the consortium, including conception, quality management, reporting and documentation.
- Assessment of the current distribution of available solar lamps and similar products in Burkina Faso.
- Assessment of bottle-necks and success factors in the distribution of portable solar lighting products.
- Recommendation of appropriate solutions to scale up the distribution of solar lighting products.
- Development of appropriate maps and graphics, compilation of stakeholder contact details.

Energy technologies & energy uses:

Solar

Productive
Use

Contact: consulting.projects@microenergy-international.com